

Chicago, IL – December, 2013

Prospect City announced it has been engaged to provide market benchmarking and pipelining services to Black Hills Corporation, located in Rapid, City, SD.

Black Hills Corporation serves about 1M customers with energy generation, exploration and distribution. It delivers both electricity and gas to customers in Montana, South Dakota, Wyoming, Colorado, Iowa, Kansas and Nebraska.

“We are pleased to serve BHC in their efforts to benchmark talent, identify stars, and track existing a future stars,” stated Robert Stein, President of Prospect City. “We look forward to serving the company with these important ongoing projects.”

Prospect City is an infrastructure services provider to executive recruiting firms and to the corporate C-suite and BOD strategists. The company provides software and recruiting services to identify and track leading industry talent for the purpose of succession, benchmarking and hiring.

Contact Information

Maria Parales

support@prospectcity.com

Prospect City, LLC

847.487.4256