

Chicago, IL – April, 2011

Prospect City announced it has been engaged by OfficeMax to provide global pipelining and benchmarking senior talent.

In addition to the continuous talent scan to support succession planning, benchmarking and recruitment, Prospect City will provide its database technology to support OMX leadership and the Prospect City team.

“Pipelining has become a popular alternative for clients who want to approach talent benchmarking as a partnership among highly qualified recruiters, researchers and corporate management”, added Robert Stein, President of Prospect City.

Prospect City is an infrastructure services provider to executive recruiting firms and corporate recruiting functions within large organizations. The company leverages all of these relationships to provide pipelining services to corporate clients on behalf of recruiters and researchers willing to work under this platform.

OfficeMax Incorporated (NYSE: OMX) is a leader in both business-to-business office products solutions and retail office products. The OfficeMax mission is simple. We help our customers do their best work. The company provides office supplies and paper, in-store print and document services through OfficeMax ImPress™, technology products and solutions, and furniture to consumers and to large, medium and small businesses. OfficeMax customers are served by approximately 35,000 associates through direct sales, catalogs, e-commerce and more than 900 stores.
