

Chicago, IL – July, 2008

Prospect City announced it has expanded its relationship with RHR International, the premier global management consulting firm. Prospect City has been selected to expand its support of talent identification and pipelining, and provide pre-intelligence for some of its client projects.

“RHR is the premier resource in its industry and we are proud to serve in this key role.” said Robert Stein, President of Prospect City. “We hope to add new capabilities to the firm through our diverse contributions to talent acquisition and management due diligence.”

Prospect City will work with RHR’s leadership to support its management due diligence process with pre-intelligence, knowledge delivery technology and other supportive services.

Prospect City is an infrastructure services provider to executive recruiting firms and corporate recruiting functions within large organizations. The company provides technology (database, VoIP phone systems, IM, websites and email) along with research intelligence, administration and accounting services to executive search firms.
